ST MORITZ

Named after the chicest of winter destinations St Moritz is a fabric collection with the level of luxury, style and practicality required by even the most demanding of alpine fashionistas.

Woven from 100% cashmere it has a cut pile finish which gives the cloth an unparalleled soft feel and at 360gm has the guarantee of adding warmth for the wearer. This collection has the perfect balance of winter colours, rich browns, reds & blues sit alongside soft grey and camel. The heavier weight means that it can also be used to make a light coat ideal for winter layering, ensuring that this new introduction is as versatile as it is beautiful.

GOLDEN GATE

A new addition to the Scabal collections, Golden Gate is designed for the connoisseur of luxury who also loves colour.

Made in England at the Scabal mill, the collection is designed to work year-round and offers a concise selection of qualities and colours split into 4 chapters:

At the start we have 10 articles in 100% Cashmere twill at 280gm, this is followed by 6 additional cashmere articles in a plain weave at a lighter 200gm.

The 2nd half is made up of exquisite Super 180's wool t in 2 weights, 7 shades at 240gm and 6 at the heavier 300gm both in a twill weave.

This is a reliable collection of plains with colours ranging from bold reds, greens and browns to the more traditional shades of blue and black.

ZEUS

This iconic overcoat collection returns this season refreshed with a wide selection of new colours, designs and patterns.

The collection opens with a selection of statement checks in a wool and cashmere combination, the designs are enhanced by the colour choices of winter white, soft brown and classic navy. Within the 100% wool selection there is a wide choice of more traditional overcoating patterns before the collection moves into an essential selection of plain colours in the heavier weight of 520gm.

The pinnacle of the collection is a large selection of cashmere articles, select a traditional finish or for the ultimate in luxury choose a fabric with a stunning ripple finish.

Colours range from classic overcoating palette of blues, camels and greys to more unexpected shades of rich burgundy, warm browns and military greens.

BEVERLY HILLS

Limited, luxurious and sought after, the Beverly Hills collection mimics the exclusive area of Los Angeles that is its namesake. Each of the eight articles is constructed from a specially selected combination of cashmere and silk woven together in a twill weave to create an elegant and refined fabric of the highest quality.

Colours range from soft cream, fawn and beige through muted red and green and close with a selection of blues and a classic black all guaranteed to catch the attention. To give the ultimate in softness there is a delicate brushed finish to the surface of the fabric. The addition of the silk adds a gentle sheen to the fabric that catches the light and elevates the luxurious look of each article.

SONATA

Beautifully harmonious, like its name suggests, the Sonata collection brings colour to the dull winter months. Presented in a Super 100's wool at a 320gm weight which makes it perfect for the colder months.

The collection falls into two parts, the first, a selection of herringbones in a rainbow of colours. The combination of different coloured yarns within the herringbone adds depth to the pattern and tones down the colours making even the brightest very wearable.

For a more understated option, choose from the second part of the collection, where you will see a range of diagonal weave hopsack fabrics ideal to create a blazer with a modern feel. Colours here are seasonal and muted designed to easily combine with a variety of options for adaptable wearing occasions.

SAVILE ROW CLASSICS

Designed to celebrate the finest notes of British tailoring, the Savile Row Classics collection is a new introduction from scabal.

The designers have examined decades of Scabal fabric archives to be able to create a collection that represents all the pillars of classic suiting naturally, pinstripes, chalk stripes, split hopsacks and pick and pick and a beautiful range of shadow stripes in tonal shades. To elevate the semi-plains into something special a merveilleux weave has been used which also creates more character and richness. In addition to the classic shades of blues and greys you will also see rich shades of green, brown and a warm plum across the collection.

Made in England at the Scabal Mill in Yorkshire this collection is 100% finest wool in a traditional 2ply construction. At 320gm this is a versatile selection that can be used for year round suits, jackets and trousers.
